Ballough, vice-president; W. E. Ballough, treasurer; Sidney Haigh, secretary; S. H. Gove, auditor.

A. R. Harper, of the well known music house of Ludden & Bates, has placed a stock of pianos and organs in the building formerly occupied by the GAZETTE-NEWS. Mr. Harper has sold a number of instruments during his stay in town, and persons contemplating the purchase of a piano or organ will do well to call and talk the matter over with him during the next ten days. See ad on another page.

When business is dull, and expenses run along just the same, the shrewd business man will make all the greater effort to attract what trade there is. It must be remembered that a newspaper reaches just as many homes and is read by as many people during the quiet season as when times are lively, and an advertisement will make the same impression, although direct results may not be seen until patrons are free to visit our city.

Dog days, these.

There has been all this season an abundance of rain, cool breezes have tempered the heat of the days, and the nights have been cool. Verily, Florida has the best summer climate, in all our broad land.

Walter Williams, the Missouri editor and essayist, is credited with the following: "Fame has taken men from the forge and plow handle, but she never reached over a picket fence and yanked a dude out of a hammock."

A Pleasant Event.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Stewart gave an informal musical at the Seaside Inn Monday evening to about 100 guests. The house was beautifully decorated with palms, flowers and smilax by the lady guests of the hostelry. Miss E. E. Beatty, of Tampa, and Mr. Stewart sang a duet; the charming Miss Elizabeth Hansbrough, of Leesburg, rendered several vocal selections which were loudly applauded; Mrs. E. H. Mote, of the same place also did likewise. Miss Gladys Stewart and Mrs. C. H. Stewart, of Melbourne, rendered an instrumental duet, and Mrs. W. H. Heath, of Holly Hill, rendered two vocal selections. Roy P. Barker, the clever entertainer, was on hand and did his part to make the evening one of pleasure; he did several clever turns on the mandolin and sang two comic selections. Mrs. Spangler and Miss Pearl Spaulding also entertained the company by several instrumental pieces.

Refreshments consisting of punch and cake were served. After the musical program was completed those who so desired were given an opportunity to trip the "wee fantastic" to music furnished by Mrs. Spangler.

A Beautiful Home.

In a recent interview with E. N. Waldron, in relation to his new house, he said that his wife planned the inside and he the outside. The first and second stories have each five and the third six rooms. There are also two detached kitchens and a laundry. The house will be provided with both hard and soft water on the first two floors, and will have electric lights throughout. The rooms will be heated by a furnace, and will be furnished with all modern conveniences, such as bath fixtures, toilet closets, etc. The water will be forced to the tanks above the second floor by a Rife Hydraulic engine. Sewerage will be provided for by the same process as adopted by DeLand. This beautiful house is covered with building paper between the sheathing and clapboards as a non-conductor of both heat and cold. With a boarding house on each side Mr. Waldron expects to rent his surplus rooms to lodgers, who can secure their meals near their rooms. He has a good staff of workmen under the general supervision of Geo. Silvernail. Chas. Kost has charge of the painting, and J. B. Sanborn of the plastering, and counts on first class work from them all.

Mr. Daniel Bantz, Otterville, Ia., says: "Have had asthma and a very bad cough for years, but could get no relief from the doctors and medicines I tried, until I took Foley's Honey and Tar. It gave immediate relief, and done me more good than all the other remedies combined." Dr. J. M. Jones.

Mrs. A. M. Mitchell left Thursday for New York via the Clyde line from Jacksonville.

Our usual summer visitors from the interior are now beginning to be in evidence.

Rev. Arnold will hold services at the Clarendon Inn every Sunday evening during the summer.

Mesdames Cannon and McArthur and Miss Finley, of Gainesville, are guests of the Clarendon Inn.

Earle Snyder, of DeLand, who has been clerking at the Breakers, was obliged to return home last week on account of a severe case of the mumps.

J. P. Haney has been somewhat indisposed for the past few days with an attack of the rheumatism, but is again able to be at his work.

Mrs. E. E. Beatty, of Tampa, and Miss Virginia Walker, of Alabama, are two of the popular young ladies spending the summer at the Seaside Inn.

C. F. Burgman, who for the past two weeks has been spending a short vacation in the mountains of Tennessee, is expected to return home Sunday.

Attorney Hocker, Orlando, is spending a couple of weeks at the Seaside Inn. Mr. Hocker is an expert fisherman, and keeps the hotel table well supplied with specimens of the finny tribe.

E. E. Starkey was arrested last week on complaint of C. F. Burgman, charged with assault and battery. The case will come up for trial at DeLand the 13th of this month. The GAZETTE-NEWS will publish a report of the proceedings.

The Thursday evening dances at the pavilion are beginning to prove a "howling success." The young people of Daytona turn out in goodly numbers, as well as our own youngsters. Dancing and star gazing, off the end of the pier by twos, is generally indulged in to a large extent.

Work on the new bridge is still progressing steadily under the management of Chas. Ballough. From all accounts this bridge will be the best of any yet constructed across the Halifax in this county. The lumber is beginning to arrive and it will not be long until the people here will have right at hand A1 bridge in every respect.

E. E. Starkey is erecting a very pretty cottage for Mr. McClannahan on the property recently purchased by him opposite Major Britton. This cottage will be two stories high, the first being coquina. The inside finish will be of cypress, and it is safe to say that it will be one of the most attractive and up-to-date in our community.

Frank William's mother and two sisters left last Tuesday afternoon for their home in Crook County, Wyoming. Mrs. Williams came to Florida the first of last Nov., for her health and leaves much improved. Miss Florence Williams taught in the intermediate grade of our school last winter and rendered very efficient service. Their many friends wish them a pleasant journey home. Frank Williams will remain here during the fall and winter.

Thieves are beginning to get in their work in this neighborhood. One evening last week two miscreants attempted to enter the residence of Wesley Herrick on North Valley street while he was away from home. Mrs. Herrick, who had not gone with Mr. Herrick, was attracted by a peculiar noise down stairs accompanied by talking. She listened and in a moment heard one of them say, "Get in, nobody is at home." Upon hearing this Mrs. Herrick called in a loud voice to Mr. Haney, who lives next door, and the rascals took fright and ran away. Upon examination it was found that they had completely torn out the screen of the window.
